

Register With Us and Request a Password

Registration is the first step toward creating a profile in the state of Washington Talent Pool. Once you register, you can provide the state with your “Profile.”

You are encouraged to register and create a profile, however this is not required. Doing so will enable agency recruiters who are searching for individuals with your qualifications to access your name and invite you to apply for job openings that match your skills. If you prefer, you can search for opportunities and apply directly for the jobs that interest you.

To begin the registration process, enter your first, middle and last name. Enter your preferred user name, and create a password that is a minimum of six characters long and include a letter, number and symbol. To better protect your personal information, the system requires that passwords be updated every 90 days.

Enter your email address. The system will not allow the use of duplicate email addresses. Each registrant will need to have a unique email address. See our website for information on free email.

Note: Washington State employees will use their personnel ID number in lieu of their name.

Before you register, read the data privacy statement (shown below) and acknowledge that you accept it.
